

Descriptive Writing Revision

Super charge your creative writing with these awesome writing tasks. Complete one each day for the next 12 days!

Day 1 – Technique: Review figurative language techniques: Metaphor; Oxymoron; Personification; Simile; Pathetic Fallacy, Colour Imagery. Find a way to memorize them.	Day 2 – Writing: Write about a time when someone goes on a journey. Write 350 words describing one part of the journey. Use the techniques revised on Day 1.	Day 3 – Technique: Creating an interesting opening is essential. Write 10 different opening sentences for stories about: 1. Happiness 2. Fear 3. Freedom 4. Anger
Day 4– Writing: Write a short narrative about someone who has power. Write 300 words. Focus on the opening and your vocabulary.	Day 5 – Technique: Review different sentence structures for fiction. Write a description of yourself – ensuring every sentence uses a different structure.	Day 6 - Writing: Write about a time when someone has to welcome and look after another person. Write 350 words. Focus on nouns and adjectives.
Day 7 – Technique: Review the purpose of using different sentence lengths. Write a story about someone who has an adventure. Write 250 words focus on sentence length.	Day 8 – Writing Write a short narrative about someone who is waiting for something. Aim to write 300 words. Focus on vocabulary, sentence structure, and sentence length.	Day 9 – Technique Sit in a kitchen or cafeteria and list everything that can be: seen, smelled, heard, felt (and tasted). Write 100 words describing your room using only sensory imagery.
Day 10 - Writing: Write a short narrative about someone who wins something. Aim to write 350 words.	Day 11 – Technique Review prepositions and how to use them. Write a description of searching for something. Write 300 words using at least 10 prepositions.	Day 12 - Writing: Describe a city street during a storm. Write 400 words using all the techniques revised so far.